Driver in Elkridge collision pronounced dead at hospital Second driver uninjured

One driver in this morning's two-vehicle collision in Elkridge has died from her injuries.

The driver and sole-occupant of the Nissan, Diana C. Turner, 33, of Baltimore, was pronounced dead after being transported Howard County General Hospital with critical injuries.

The driver and sole-occupant of the Infiniti, Scarlet S. Berard, 46, of Ellicott City, was not injured.

At approximately 8:00 a.m., an Infiniti QX70 was traveling eastbound on Route 108 at Lark Brown Road when it collided with a Nissan Versa turning left on Lark Brown from the westbound lane of Route 108.

Preliminary investigation revealed that the Nissan Versa failed to obey the traffic signal. The investigation is ongoing.

Route 108 eastbound was closed at Lark Brown Road and Lark Brown was closed in both directions for approximately two hours.
